The Korean Scientists and Engineers Association in Austria (KOSEAA) invites you to participate in the Europe-Korea Conference on Science and Technology (EKC), which will take place at the TU Wien, Austria, from 25th to 28th August 2025.

EKC brings together Korean scientists and engineers working in Europe and Korea, and it also attracts European scientists and engineers interested in collaborating with Korean nationals. The conference aims to develop friendships, exchange knowledge and ideas, and promote science and technology.

The theme of EKC2025 is “Global Innovative Frontiers: Bridging Research and Industry Exploring Fundamentals and Driving Prosperity”, which means that research and industrial development are based on fundamentals and that fundamentals are essential. According to the EU, the Republic of Korea will become a member of Horizon Europe from January 1, 2025. Researchers and organizations from the Republic of Korea will participate in the calls and activities of Pillar II of Horizon Europe from the 2025 work programme. Many European and Korean institutions are already interested in participating in EKC2025 and expanding their scientific networks.

As the main host of the conference, KOSEAA works closely with the Korean Federation of Science and Technology Societies (KOFST) and eight other affiliates in Europe which are in Germany (VeKNI), UK (KSEAUK), France (ASCoF), Finland (KOSES), Scandinavia (KSSEA), the Netherlands (KOSEANL), Switzerland (KSEAS), and Belgium (KOSEAbel).
